Dear Anne,

I will write you

Dear M. M.
I have in my pocket

a few lines, I have not time to write much for I must send this to thee.

O. tonight I have days you had better come out & look at our house & see what a little for the days they are right down at Chancery, says if you will come, you may have this cell with it. He has got a real pretty black coll 3 year old) says he is nice think of coming to the 1. next fall, but don't think he shall? none no he has ~~John~~ comes there so often Mr. race says you are a good little "gal" to write to him & he shall write to you some time when his hands are not so stiff says he shall write, don't care whether you want him to or not, He is always pleased when he gets a letter, although he won't say so always. You wish to know my conclusion about tell. I. all you say? You need not fear for there is as much fun & nonsense in him as any one I know. I must close Write often Goodbye. Sally
