

rather a queer piece you know I always did that by did not tell my news anyone then Mary wrote you
you must see anything I knew any letter with these years birds here they are as ~~most~~ thick as they can be of Blaines, ME sent that last to the pliers a long time ago so the birds are in plenty and have that is a better measure than birds nests in the garden that was your opinion I have kept a ~~very~~ ^{very} lot of you about the house some in the garden off the wire and I suppose not with 4 little ones in

My dear Sister

I will now commence to write you something see if John has any to send by Tuesday's mail if not I will it by its self I told you up until Friday night so will commence there I told ^{you} I did not think I should do all the mud work but I did finish it all up beside mending the south bed room floor and ~~round~~ as I had mended the cloths in that room and had not got it right again yesterday forenoon father went down to see Uncle John about the cow and as he and Lully were going to Haver for they come up in the morning they staid until after dinner Uncle John's home saw a cow like her before she is more today father says she will not live until at all he thinks. Lully Pillows sent me her cardinals by Kelly yesterday so you need have another. The boys got home last night perhaps John will tell you of their doings just a number of evening &

Give G. Give names of Ruthless M. Givint and someone is here now he come in a little while ago. Hearing me I don't have to move yet and Sam Sherrin. It is now past 10 o'clock but as John has pinched his nose to. Uncle John said yesterday that William ~~John~~ I will not keep this waiting but will finish up Phensens wife was dead since she was in the mill this was let it come. This M. I went to W. Field to work. ~~Large~~ I met sister to day she was in to get my burnt John went with me we drove till the mill morning and ~~said~~ ~~Miss~~ ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~mill~~ ~~as~~ ~~John~~ ~~was~~ ~~using~~ ~~Barry~~ ~~he~~ ~~came~~ ~~back~~ ~~to~~ ~~the~~ ~~old~~ Mrs. Charity Barber he is in the 4th N. B. N. V. you know then I come home he came first to get my if being they have three children I have heard. We burnt it cost $ 3.95 an awful price if I can all went to meeting but John he staid at home I will cut you a piece of the ribbon & I have to watch the new House and Little went Sade stier some of the plans I had in mine ^{and one} ~~one~~ new with Mrs. W. I have not ^{seen} ~~since~~ her since Tuesday. It one's. It looks just well but the cost tells the since a little as meeting we cut before we got home pretty off some, you know. but it does my well I suppose it rained real hard we found Bridgete Barber stars Before I got home from (Hingham) I came back that and he they was here. after dinner ~~was~~ ~~at~~ ~~hill~~ my as I wanted to stop there) I saw that Mrs. Henry it commenced to hail it hailed some 15 or 20 minutes Barber's wife sisters and little Mattie Barber they staid the hail stones were just large as large as small until it about 2 past eleven just then mother went peas but it seems warmer now. right before last there out in the kitchen and she said who is this was just a hard frost it killed considerable corn coming now I looked out and saw Mattie Fry on the plain and a good deal in D. Sherris. and a Lady I did not know it proved to be Mrs. Barber garden it has been the coldest here for 3 or 4 days Mary mother they said they were going to W. Field that I ever saw it in June. I never saw better and that said she must stop a minute it was as hard in June as it was when I took it so near noon that I persuaded them to stay until out of the Church yesterday M. John Key after dinner for they were out in the Garden at VT seems done I'll see see not off. I'll see I must come home

I left my things all standing but if she had what I needed I would sleep with her I would and she said if I would she would like to have me I'll I need do her no good but I thought if it did him he is the night she would get her own
I don't up and she
with her she sleeping meets and is her
I if there I leave home is seen or I got up have heard to day that it was worse he would be long I suppose it was to the night he would must be his blue her Bittering I hope she will get off and with her for good

Dear sister
I thought Monday when I mailed your letter I should write again that we let to night just finds me at it I will just tell you sure that I did not when I met you wanted to know if any of those gifts hired I asked further this day he said fine of them no buying if no more.
You spoke of having lobster we have had some get further talks of going to the beach tomorrow with Ginny he has ^{never} ~~not~~ been as much as 1/2 day since he come live the part of Marsh he talks of getting some if he can we have had some clams here that three we had got one last week we had some fish ^{fish} I mean. I guess this will be a funny letter for I am laid to put ^{it} in just as I happen to think what I did not tell you before I think better I was my kind to buy the lobster for you I am very sure that you have not changed your boarding
