Dear Sister,

I will try to write you a few lines this afternoon but it is a hard job to write any with ^{this} ink. It has separated & has to be shaken up every few minutes. I have forgotten to send to town for some, when I have had a chance.

I suppose by the time or before you get this, you will have entered upon your summer's work. If you get along as pleasantly as I did the summer I spent there, you will not have a disagreeable task. If you get my boarding place I think you will feel satisfied. I liked it much after I got acquainted with them.
Give all of the family much love from me, & also to Mary Lewis. Tell them I would like very much to see them all. If any more of friends or any that were my scholars inquire after me give them my love.

How does John like "Carolina Mills"?

By the way do you know whether Henry Pullen made muck while he was gone? You know it was said he expected to make a great deal.

It almost makes my mouth water to hear about wintergreen & its berries.
When new comes up I hope some or all of you will take the trouble to send me some. Now don't forget it.

Mrs. Bowley (the boy that works for us is her son?) spent the day here yesterday.
She is English. She is a very nice ladylike woman. I like her ways much.

I forgot to tell you that Mary's mother & Mrs. Wallace Baxter & Tim.
Baxter were here Sunday about all day. Tim. says he is going to N. I. with me to see if Acad. are you want him.
I must close for Minnie sits in my lap
