(YOUR IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY STUDENT ID CARD)

Introducing the ISUCard . . .

The ISUCard is your student ID and a lot more.

It's your student ID card.

The ISUCard carries your university ID number and photo. Your university ID number is not the same as your social security number, though some university departments may request your social security number to provide a service.

It's your access card.

The ISUCard verifies your status as an ISU student and provides access to university services and facilities, such as the Lied Recreation Athletic Facility, AccessPlus, check cashing and reduced ticket prices for some campus events.

It's your library card.

The ISUCard is your passport to ISU Library services.

It's your meal card.

If you have a residence hall meal plan, the ISUCard serves as your dining hall pass.

It's your ATM card.

You have the option of making your ISUCard your ATM card by opening a checking account at Firststar Bank. Optional overdraft protection is available.

It's your shopping card.

If you choose to make your ISUCard an ATM card through Firststar Bank, it can be used at ATM machines, the University Book Store and other merchants where you see the SHAZAM® or CIRRUS® symbols displayed.

It's your cash stripe card.

You can activate a cash stripe account with your ISUCard by depositing up to $50 at cash-to-card machines throughout campus. By activating the cash stripe, your ISUCard acts just like money and can be used at a variety of on-campus locations, such as the Memorial Union Food Court, University Book Store and vending machines.

It's your future.

Your ISUCard services will only continue to grow.

It's your responsibility.

The security of your ISUCard is important. You should report the loss of your ISUCard immediately to the ISUCard Office, (515) 294-2727. Unauthorized use of your ISUCard could result in some liability. There is a fee to replace your ISUCard.

Questions?

If you have questions about the ISUCard or want to find out how to receive your ISUCard and begin enjoying its convenience and versatility, contact the ISUCard Office, (515) 294-2727.
